POLSON MAN NAMED UM ADVOCATE OF THE TERM

MISSOULA --

Joe Summary, a University of Montana junior majoring in business administration, was selected as the UM Advocate of the Term for fall quarter, 1989.

The son of Fred and Sharon Summary of Polson, Summary ranked first in participation among 75 members of the student organization. He serves as co-chair of the university relations committee and is a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

UM Advocates is a student group that assists the university with UM Days, orientations, recruiting and registration. The group also provides campus hosts for homecoming, alumni reunions and UM Foundation events.

In recognition of Summary's achievement, a plaque bearing his name and portrait is on display in the UM Advocates office.
